MERCHANDISE THAT YOU CAN ENTER MEXICO

A Guide from the Mexican Foreign Affair Office

LUGGAGE

Your personal luggage without paying taxes. It consists of the following:

- Goods for personal use, such as clothing —including a bridal trousseau—, footwear, and grooming and beauty products, provided they are commensurate with the duration of the trip, baby items, such as a chair, a crib laptop, stroller, walker, among others, including their accessories.
- Two photographic or video recording cameras; photographic material; three portable cell phone equipment or other wireless networks; a global positioning equipment (gps); an electronic diary; a portable computing equipment of the so-called laptop, notebook, omnibook or similar; a portable copier or printer; a burner and a portable projector, with its accessories.
- Two personal sports equipment, four fishing rods, three speedboats with or without a sail and their accessories, trophies or awards, as long as they can be transported commonly and normally by the passenger.
- A portable device for the recording or reproduction of sound or mixed; or two for digital image and sound recording or reproduction and a portable DVD player; a set of portable speakers, and their accessories.
- Five laser discs, 10 dvd discs, 30 compact discs, three software packages, and five storage devices for any electronic equipment.
- Books, magazines and printed documents.
- Five toys, including collectibles, and a video game console, as well as five video games.
- A device to measure blood pressure and one to measure glucose or mixed and its reagents, as well as medications for personal use (in the case of psychotropic substances, the medical prescription must be shown).

- Suitcases, flasks, trunks and suitcases or any other item necessary for the transfer of luggage.
- A binocular and a telescope.
- Two musical instruments and their accessories.
- A tent and other camping items.
- A set of hand tools with its case, which may include a drill, pliers, wrenches, sockets, screwdrivers, power cords, among others.
- Passengers over 18 years of age, a maximum of 10 cigarette packs, 25 cigars or 200 grams of tobacco; up to three liters of alcoholic beverages and six liters of wine.
- Older adults and people with disabilities, items that due to their characteristics replace or reduce their limitations, such as walkers, wheelchairs, crutches, canes, among others.

In addition, you can import, without paying taxes, up to three pets or companion animals that you bring with you, such as cats, dogs, canaries, hamsters, guinea pigs, parakeets, nymphs, ferrets, parakeets, turtles, small wild birds (except birds of prey), as well as the accessories required for their transfer and cleaning, provided that you present the animal health certificate for importation, issued by Sagarpa (Agriculture Office), to customs personnel; In the case of wildlife animals, you must also present the Verification Registry issued by Profepa (Environmental Protection Office), which verifies compliance with the non-tariff regulation or restriction to which find subjects.

FRANCHISE

Now you can bring with you merchandise up to a value of 500 dollars without paying taxes, in addition to your personal luggage, only during the vacation season; the rest of the year, the deductible is $300.

Means of Transportation in which the passenger enters	Amount of the franchise	Application period
By land	300 dollars	All the year
	500 dollars	In the periods that correspond to the Paisano Program (Easter Week, summer and winter) only passengers of Mexican nationality coming from abroad who enter the country by land, with the exception of people residing in the strip or border region.

By air or sea	500 dollars	All year

The excess to which each member of the family is entitled can accumulate if they travel together in the same means of transport, except if you are a resident of the strip or border region.

You can demonstrate the value of the merchandise that is part of the franchise with invoices or sales receipts. If you do not have them, customs personnel can determine the value of the merchandise.
With your franchise you cannot introduce:

- Alcoholic beverages.
- Tobacco carved.
- Automotive fuel, except that which is contained in the fuel tank of your vehicle.

MERCHANDISE THAT YOU CANNOT ENTER MEXICO

Because this type of merchandise is prohibited or regulated, you cannot enter:

- Narcotics.
- Live fish of the predatory species of any size.
- Images of any kind that represent children in a denigrating or ridiculous way, in attitudes of incitement to violence or destruction.
- Used clothing and footwear that are not part of your personal baggage.
- Weapons and ammunition.